

John Rossetto Jr. served aboard the USS POWER DD 839
from 1957-1961- Storekeeper SK3

John J Rossetto Jr, 82, passed away at his Florida home on June 21, 2022 surrounded by his family. Jack, as he was known to all, was born on June 25, 1939 Joliet, IL. He attended St. Dennis grade school and graduated from Joliet Catholic High School in 1957. worked out at the gym and kept a log of every mile he walked as an adult. He was also a lifelong devoted member of the Catholic Church. Jack proudly served in the United States Navy from 1957–1961 and was stationed in Mayport, Florida. He started his naval career as a Storekeeper (SK3), which entailed procurement of supplies for the ship including goods for the commissary. Also known as "Rosy," Jack bestowed the ship with the best coffee around and even arranged a few legendary parties for his shipmates! Eventually, he became a member of the naval ocean rescue team, which supported the re-entry of NASA astronauts at the completion of their space missions. Jack served on the Destroyer the USS Power DD 839. He was a steadfast patriot and proudly flew the United States flag wherever he lived.